Suffolk County Legislator Tom Barraga (R-West Islip) recently attended the 14th Annual Bay Shore- Brightwaters St. Patrick's Day Parade. The streets were lined with parade goers in their green attire. For the past 13 years this parade has grown to include 5 divisions with more than 10 pipe bands and over 25 community organizations, making this the largest parade on Long Island. This year the 2014 Grand Marshal was F.J. McCarthy. "This parade has been an annual event that I look forward to attending every year. It is great to see all of the families that come out and celebrate their heritage." Barraga stated.
